

The local history societies of Acton, Barnes & Mortlake, Brentford & Chiswick, Fulham & Hammersmith, Hounslow, Richmond, Twickenham, Wandsworth & the West Middlesex Family History Society present the

35th West London Local History Conference

WOMEN IN West London's HISTORY

with

James Wisdom on the women of the Gunnersbury estate, Prof Penelope J Corfield on meritocratic women such as Emma Hamilton, George Eliot and Charlotte Despard, Val Bott on 18th century women nursery gardeners, Ann Greene on Hounslow's home front in 1914-18, and Murray Hedgcock on sporting champion Kitty Godfree

Saturday, 28 March 2015

UNIVERSITY of WEST LONDON
The Paragon, Boston Manor Rd,
Brentford TW8 9GA

Near Boston Manor (Piccadilly Line) & Brentford (SW Trains) and with free parking on site

Tickets £15.00 only in advance available from sponsoring societies or by post from

J McNamara, 31B Brook Rd South, Brentford, Middlesex TW8 ONN

Please send a self-addressed envelope & a cheque made out to
'West London Local History Conference'

royal landowner

nursery gardener

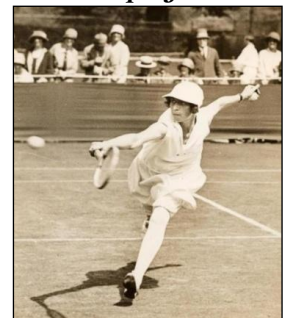

writer

war worker

campaigner

sporting champion